

Quartet,
CONTINUED

Founded in 1946, the ensemble draws on a deep and vital engagement to the classics, while embracing the mission of championing new works, a vibrant combination of the familiar and the daring. Each performance of the Juilliard String Quartet is a unique experience, bringing together the four members' profound understanding, total commitment, and unceasing curiosity in sharing the wonders of the string quartet literature.

The group's 2019-20 season includes concerts in major European and U.S. cities.

Adding to its celebrated discography, an album of works by Beethoven, Bartók, and Dvořák is set to be released by Sony Classical during the 2019-20 season.

The quartet's recordings have won Grammy Awards, and in 2011 the JSQ became the first classical music ensemble to receive a lifetime achievement award from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

HOWL Transition Program Open House

A-STATE HERALD

STAFF REPORT

The HOWL program is committed to providing positive learning environments for students with Intellectual Disabilities and Autism through engagement and inclusive practices.

It is a new program for students who are transitioning out of high school into college and young adulthood.

Students will have the opportunity to engage in experiences that enrich and enhance educational, social, and interpersonal skills to achieve their individual aspirations.

The HOWL Transition Program provides the A-State experience to future and current students and provides support to students in the following areas: mentoring, social skills, career planning, independent living skills, and tutoring.

The third annual A-State First-Year Composition Colloquium is a conference-style come-and-go interdisciplinary event in which students who are enrolled in the pilot sections of Composition II present a semester-long research project aimed at solving a local issue that is important to them.

The colloquium will take place Wednesday in Centennial Hall of the Reng Student Union, third floor. It will be divided into morning (10-11:30) and afternoon (12-1:30) sessions.

The event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
