

Photo

A-State's First Ever HowlFest

1. On the back row from left to right, Rashad Kirksey, Student Government Association President, Blake Moore, SGA Vice President, Keyon Atkins, President of the Student Activities Board, Megan Atkins, Vice President of the SAB, Mary Dunn, SGA Parliamentarian, Owen Leible, SGA Chief of Staff, with, front row from left to right, Emily Mitchel, SAB Director of Campus Traditions, K'yonna Harris, SAB Director of Marketing, Rachel Gage, SAB Director of Campus Entertainment, and Amie Thomas, SAB Director of Arts & Culture, giving a Wolves Up!

2. The A-State Red Wolves sign lighting up the stage.

3. Wesley Walker, of the Wesley Walker Band, singing amongst the crowd at the A-State HowlFest.

4. Students playing games, enjoying food from Big A's BBQ, and listening to live performances by DJ King Vick, Flipperachi, and The Wesley Walker Band, Friday night outside the Red Wolf center.

5. Students serving food to individuals attending HowlFest.

6. A-State Chancellor Kelly Damphousse taking a photo with members of the A-State Spirit Squads. The HowlFest event was created after the "Order of the Pack" and pep rally events were canceled after the Homecoming football game was postponed.

7. A student puts together a plate of Big A's BBQ.

Photo 1 Courtesy of: A-State Student Government Association, Photo 3 Courtesy of: A-State Student Activities Board
Photo 6 Courtesy of: Chancellor Kelly Damphousse on twitter, Photos 2, 5 and 7 by: Hannah Risker | Photo Editor