

Photo

Freedom Run 5K

The first wave of runners beginning their stopwatches and taking off at the starting line.

A-State ROTC members standing at attention. The Freedom Run 5K was hosted by Lambda Chi Alpha for the organization "Mission 22." "Mission 22" supports the veteran community with three main programs: veteran treatment programs, memorials, and community social impact. All proceeds made from the race were donated to "Mission 22."

Freedom Run 5K participants getting ready before the race begins.

A-State students after the 5K.

The Freedom Run 5K race first, second, and third place finishers. For more photos of the event, visit the "Freedom Run 5K" photo gallery on the Herald website, theherald.home.blog.

Members of the A-State Delta Zeta sorority giving a Wolves Up!

Members of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity hosting the Freedom Run.

Students beginning the Freedom Run 5K outside the A-State Military Science Building armory. In accordance with COVID precautions, runners started in waves to allow for social distancing.

Photos by: Rangsiya Faihin | Staff Photographer