

Photo

A-State Pack Pride Day

1. A-State students outside the Reng Student Union at Pack Pride Day giving a Wolves Up!

2. A student getting an A-State Basketball T-shirt, sticker, and mask.

3. Brianna Jordan (left), a freshman instrumental music education major from Paragoud, and Autumn Davila, a freshman instrumental music education major from Benton, holding up their A-State shirts.

4. The Student Activities Board giving out free A-State masks, stickers, stress balls, and T-shirts at the Pack Pride Day event outside the Reng Student Union to rally support for the men and women's basketball teams.

5. Students gathering outside the Reng Student Union to get A-State memorabilia and support the men and women's basketball teams.

8. Christian Willis, a Redshirt Senior from Belleville, Illinois, playing in the game against the Texas-Arlington Mavericks. Willis scored 8 points for the Red Wolves.

6. Marquis Eaton, a senior from Helena, on the court. Eaton scored 18 points for the Red Wolves.

7. The A-State Red Wolves playing against the Texas-Arlington Mavericks. It was a Red Wolves win with a final score of 83 - 75.

9. Players huddled together during the men's basketball game Friday night. For more photos, visit the "A-State Pack Pride" photo gallery on the Herald website, theherald.home.blog, and to know more about the game, go to the Sports page, 1B.