

Students Having a Blast at the Monster Dash and Bash

1. Students dressed up to participate in the costume contest.

2. DJ King Vick creating remixes of classic Halloween songs.

3. An A-State student enjoying the Monster Dash and Bash.

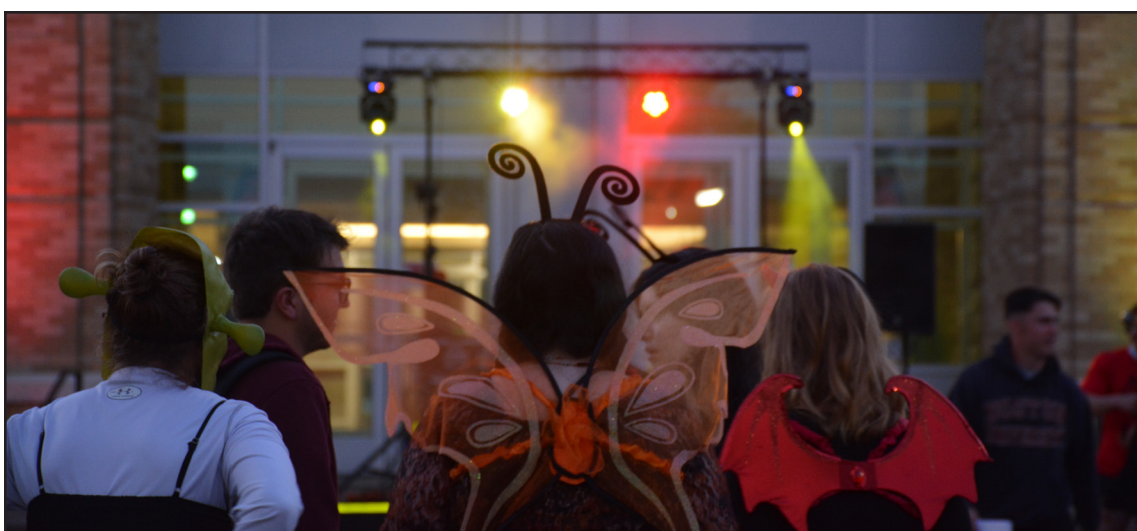

4. Students dancing listening to halloween remixes.

5. Popcorn, sprinkles, and chocolate syrup at the caramel apple bar.

6. The costume contest competitors lined up together on Heritage Plaza Lawn.

7. Students at the Monster Dash and Bash dancing to music provided by DJ King Vick.

8. The Monster Dash and Bash costume contest winner dressed as a fair with another A-State student and their dog.

9. A student dressed in costume at the Monster Dash Bash, Monday night. Heritage Plaza Lawn became a halloween party destination complete with a fun run, costume contest, caramel apple bar, games and booths targeted to raising alcohol awareness.

10. Students putting on "alcohol glasses" that distort vision to throw a tennis ball into a bucket a few feet away.

11. Students visiting the booths set up by the office of Student Development for Alcohol Awareness and University Housing.

12. For more photos, visit "The Herald Newspaper" Flickr website page for two full albums, "Halloween Monster Dash and Bash Party" and "Monster Dash and Bash," or the Herald website, theherald.home.blog.

Photos 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10 and 12 by Hannah Risker | Photo Editor,
Photos 3, 5, 7 and 11 by My Huynh | Staff Photographer