

Photo

What's been going on at A-State

1. A runner participated during the annual Pink Warrior walk and Run 5K on Oct. 22.

2. Eunji Seong, the event coordinator of the International Student association and a sophomore biology major from South Korea, dressed up and attended the International Fall Festival event on Oct. 20 at the Pavilion.

3. Ms. Nora Bouzihay, the assistant director of multicultural affairs, (on the right) attended the Non-Traditional Student Organization Harvest Fest with her sister Mariam and younger brother Safwan on Oct. 22 at Heritage Plaza Lawn.

4. A group of students cheered on the many individuals who took part during the Pink Warrior Walk and Run 5K.

5. From left to right, Quynh Nguyen, a first year international major, Thao Le, an ESL student, Tien Dang, a first year communication major and Van Tran, a junior civil engineering major all from Vietnam, attended the International Fall Festival event.

6. Anyone who attended The Masked Singer event was provided free pizza from various restaurants around Jonesboro.

7. From left to right, Benjamin Mack, an administrative specialist at multicultural affairs, danced with student Amber Yates, a sophomore communication major from Salem.

8. A group of walkers at the halfway point of the Pink Warrior walk and Run 5K event.

9. All masked participants lined up on stage to be revealed to the audience members.

10. The Mayor of Jonesboro, Harold Copenhaver, attended and is unmasked as the dog at The Masked Singer event on Oct. 20 in Centennial Hall at the Reng Student Union.

Photos 2, 4 by My Hugn | Staff Photographer

Photos 1, 3, 5-10 by Jessica McMillan | Photo Editor