

ASU TV Spotlight

REACE BARRETT

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

ASU-TV has a new show on air called "Name of The Game," a game show where students are the contestants. Students compete head to head in ridiculous challenges ranging from hunting for hidden ramen ingredients, to throwing airplanes off the second floor of the Red Wolf Center to see which one can fly the farthest.

Some may find the title of the show familiar, which is because the show is a remake of an older ASU-TV show of the same name. The show does take a lot of inspiration from its predecessor, however producer Colby Thompson has been adding his own twists on the formula.

Thompson sees this as an opportunity to get students more involved with ASU-TV.

"I hope people can look forward to seeing themselves and their friends in future episodes! This is really open for anyone and I would love this to be something that could help unify our campus," Thompson said.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF ASU TV

While contestants only get to walk away with a memorial fidget cube as their trophy, the fun experience on the show, as well as getting to have their face on TV, are the main takeaways for contestants of "Name of The Game." If you are interested in participating in "Name of The Game," please fill out a form at nameofthegame.info to apply.

ASU TV's Dungeons and

Dragons show: "Red-Wolves and Ramparts", will be entering its second season with new characters, new cast members and a brand new story.

In its previous season, R&R featured only four players along with the dungeon master, however this season its cast has been altered. Replacing Jacey Davis on the table are two new players: Garret Partian and Tyler French, who are bringing their upbeat attitudes and love for puns to the show.

Partian will be playing a goblin rogue lawyer, with a penchant for introducing himself, and French will be playing a drow monk who's often lost in thought. If you're interested in getting caught up on the previous season, go to YouTube.com and type "Red-Wolves and Ramparts" in the search bar.

THIS WEEK'S POP PICK

KARA CAMPBELL | LIFE EDITOR

"SPIRITED"

"Spirited," the new musical comedy spin on Charles Dickens "A Christmas Carol," was released November 11 in theaters and on Apple TV+. The movie follows the ghost of Christmas present, Will Ferrell, who is considering retiring back to Earth for a second chance at life. However, before he retires, he wants to change one last person and chooses Clint Briggs, a grouchy media consultant, played by Ryan Reynolds, who has been judged as unredeemable. However, despite the ghost of Christmas present's attempts, Briggs is unwilling to change, and continuously rejects his help and even tries to corrupt him to behave as he does. This leads to some great banter from Ferrell and Reynolds. I was also pleasantly surprised by their singing voices, and as someone who really enjoys musicals, I really enjoyed the songs and dance routines. My personal favorites were "Good Afternoon" and "Unredeemable."

Overall, I thought the movie was really funny and I had a great time watching it with my family. I would absolutely recommend this movie to anyone interested in a funny classic with some catchy songs this Christmas.

HOROSCOPES

Aquarius
(Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)
Remember that it is okay to move on and let go.

Pisces
(Feb. 19 - March 21)
Share your joy with others around you this week.

Gemini
(May 21 - June 20)
Success is just within your reach; keep pushing.

Cancer
(June 21 - July 22)
Do not let your emotions get the best of you this week.

Leo
(July 23 - Aug. 22)
Remember to prioritize time for yourself.

Virgo
(Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)
Good vibes are in your future. Take some risks this week.

Libra
(Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)
Your work will be recognized this week.

Scorpio
(Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)
You will have a surge in confidence this week.

Sagittarius
(Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)
Take time to visit your family and friends.

Capricorn
(Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)
You are entering a new chapter; exciting opportunities await you.

Aries
(March 22 - April 19)
Remember to listen to your inner self.

Taurus
(April 20 - May 20)
Remember to lean on your friends and family.

Interested in reporting? Join us every Monday at 5 p.m. in room 224 in the Communications Building.