"What Were They Wearing" Exhibit

1. The Arkansas State University Museum is displaying the "What Were They Wearing" exhibit through April 28. It shows recreated outfits of local individuals who have been sexually assaulted and shares their true stories. To read the story, go to page 3A.

2. "I was sleeping. He would come into my room at night. I didn't like what he did to me. I cried and wet the bed."

3. "I was a bridesmaid in a friend's wedding. After the reception, we were drinking. I told him no. He didn't stop."

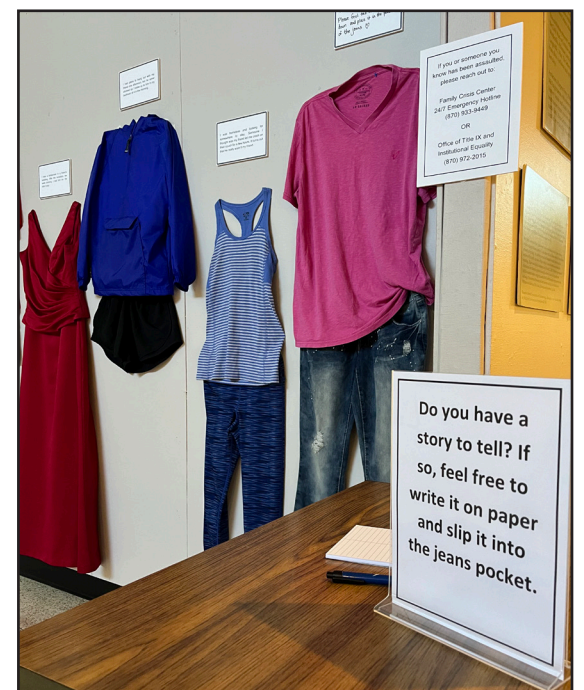

4. "I had plans to hang out with my friend one afternoon, but he never showed up. I woke up to him in my bedroom at 4 in the morning."

5. "I was at a party. I don't know what they gave me. I woke up and he was behind me. I was screaming when I woke up. I was so scared."

6. "I was at the lake with friends. I woke up with a friend of a friend in my tent. I didn't invite him there and I didn't agree to what he did to me."

7. Visitors could share their own stories by writing it down and slipping it into the jeans pocket of the exhibit's final outfit.
