

Campus and Community of Arkansas State

1. A photo of the damage left by the tornado in North Little Rock sent in by Cassidy Lamb. To read the story, go to page 1A.

2. Taylor Coffel, a sophomore English major from Paragould, handed out Easter eggs with the Easter Bunny at the Reng Student Union. There, they promoted the Baptist Collegiate Ministry's Easter service.

3. The "Through a Child's Eyes" exhibit opened at the A-State Museum April 1. TACE showcases art by children in the local area. Students from ages four through eighth grade entered work into the exhibit.

4. Heidy Bulbarela-Hernandez, a sophomore graphic design major from Stuttgart, Arkansas, displayed the menu for Hermandad de Sigma Iota Alpha's Mexican Food Stand April 4.

5. Erin Pruitt, a senior biology major from Helena, Arkansas, ordered elote en vaso (corn in a cup) from the Mexican Food Stand.

6. Sofia Mancilla, a sixth grade student from Jonesboro Visual and Performing Arts Magnet won the Best of Show award with this piece: "Colors of Me."

7. Ariana Rodriguez, Alicia Sustaita and Roxana Flores served food at the Mexican Food Stand.

Photos 2, 3 & 6 by Caroline Averitt | Photo Editor

Photos 4, 5 & 7 by Laila Casiano | Staff Writer