

Photo

HAIRSTYLES OF A-STATE

1. Jaden Holley is a sophomore social work major from Brookland, Arkansas. She said hair expression plays a large role in the African American community and makes her feel confident.

2. Kauri Ford is a first-year business administration major from Jonesboro. Ford said she wanted to feel spooky.

3. Paeli Humway, a sophomore sociology major from Jonesboro, sports bright red hair.

4. Eren Ernes, a senior music education major from Jonesboro, said she decided to cut her hair into a pixie cut because it is enjoyable to have and easy to style.

5. Julianna Nelson, a first-year general studies major from Kennett, Missouri, has Y2K hair with chunky blond highlights.

6. Cass Ford, a first-year sociology and social work major from Jonesboro, has a lime green to blue gradient hairstyle.

7. Kristen George, a sophomore music education major from Batesville, Arkansas, said she loves pairing blue with her natural brown hair.

8. Will Glass, a senior strategic communications major from Jonesboro, has a blond buzz cut dyed in certain spots to resemble leopard print.

Photos 1, 2, 3, 5 & 6 by Shelby Russom | Photo Editor

Photo 4 courtesy of Rebecca Worthington

Photo 7 courtesy of Kristen George

Photo 8 courtesy of Will Glass