

Photo

Orange, yellow and Red Wolves

1. Mollie Biggs, a junior criminology major from Atoka, Tennessee, poses for a photo beside Reng Student Union.

2. A squirrel attempts to crack open a nut on a tree near Dean B. Ellis Library.

3. Fallen leaves blanket the walkway in front of Reng Student Union.

4. Ginkgo tree branches and golden leaves frame the view near Reng Student Union.

5. Leaves begin to turn from green to yellow as fall settles in on campus.

6. Bright red leaves signal the peak of fall foliage.

7. Zhoe Davis, a senior animal science major from Marion, Arkansas, poses for a photo along the walkway near NYIT.

8. Leaves on campus display a vibrant mix of fall colors.

9. (Left) Nafay Abdul, NYIT Class of 2029 from Plainfield, Illinois, and Lawrence Nguyen, NYIT Class of 2028 from Houston, walk together.

10. Ayleighonna Farmer, a first-year nursing major from Steele, Missouri, poses with a coffee in hand on campus.

11. Fall colors highlight trees near the Agriculture Building, capturing the season's beauty.

12. Avinaya Khadka, a junior computer science major from Kathmandu, Nepal, walks to the library holding a coffee.