

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

Alpha Gamma Rho (AGR) Fraternity
Statement Regarding Image at Arkansas State University

On Saturday evening, January 31, 2026, the Alpha Gamma Rho (AGR) Fraternity Home Office was made aware of an offensive social media post which had the Alpha Gamma Rho chapter house location in Jonesboro, Arkansas included in the image. The National Fraternity is investigating this racist and hateful image and does not tolerate or condone any such behavior. Arkansas State University has been able to confirm that the individual seen in the post is not an Arkansas State University student. The Fraternity can also confirm this individual is not a member of our organization. This behavior is unacceptable and is a complete contradiction of the Purpose, Values, and Principles of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity. The Fraternity does not tolerate any hate – based conduct or actions of any kind. The National Fraternity has been in ongoing contact with the University and is collaborating with them throughout their investigation.