

Photo

Love around campus

1. Simranjit Kaur, a MBA graduate student from India, holds gifts she won at the teddy bear hunt event held by ISA.

2. (Left) Stephanie Flores, a sophomore radiology major from Beebe, Arkansas, and LeAra Hopson, a sophomore radiology major from Poplar Bluff, Missouri, paints at the Women in Science (WIS) Galentine's Day event in the Reng Student Union.

3. (Left) Nona Saulnier, a senior animal science pre vet major from Hardy, Arkansas, and Nicté Becerra, a senior digital technologies and design major from Mexico, prepare for the Galentine's Day event at the student union.

4. Valentine's Day gifts sold at the campus store at the student union.

5. Students play games at ISA's Valentine's dinner party at the student union.

6. Valentine's Day gifts sold at the campus store at the student union.

7. International student association (ISA) members pose for a photo at their Valentine's dinner party at the student union.

8. (Left) Eliza Parkman, a sophomore radiology major from Eureka Springs, Arkansas, Aubree Mangrum, a junior wildlife conservation major from Paragould, and Carly Pittman, a first-year exercise science major from Mountain Home, Arkansas, at the Delta Zeta Galentine's Day sisterhood event.

9. Yujeong Choi, a senior accounting major from South Korea, decorates a Valentine's Day card at Redwolf Wednesday, held at the A-State museum.

10. The Delta Zeta Golden Family poses for a photo at their sorority Galentine's Day sisterhood event.

11. Students queue up to sign in for the Galentine's Day event held by WIS at the student union.

12. (Left) Saniya Barber and Laniya Brown, psychology majors, Rihanna Hernandez, a studio art major and Kadesha Grant, a business administration major, all first-year students from West Memphis, Arkansas, decorate wooden coasters at the student union.