

Photo

Four cultures, one celebration

1. Students stand in queue to get food and dessert served at the East Asian Festival held at Baptist Collegiate Ministry on April 9, Thursday.

2. Jooha kim, an English as a Second Language program student from Korea, serves Korean food to students at the event.

3. Ganh Hang Rong decoration by Vietnamese Student Association (VSA).

4. Students try on Japanese traditional dress, kimono, at the kimono dressing experience booth prepared by Japanese Student Organization (JSO).

5. (Left) Yijia Pan, a junior graphic design major from Guangzhou, China, hands Taylor McLeod, a first-year political science major from Memphis, a prize.

6. (Left) Prisha Malla, a sophomore psychology major from Lalitpur, Nepal, Daniel Delgadillo, a senior accounting major from Pachuca City, Mexico, and Enrique Flores Aquino, a junior economics and accounting major from Oaxaca, Mexico, enjoy food served at the East Asian Festival.

7. A student makes a spring festival couplet to bring in good luck at the booth prepared by Chinese Student Organization.

8. VSA members pose for a photo while they prepare food for visitors.

9. Hanbok photo booth prepared by the Korean Student Association.

10. JSO members serve food and dessert to students.

1,2,3,4,5,8, & 10 photo courtesy of Yume Hayashi

6 Photo courtesy of Arisu Toyama

7 Photo courtesy of Yijia Pan

9 Photo courtesy to Daon Lee