Photo

Howl ween

1. A guest at the Halloween Art Bash event held at the Windgate Hall of Art and Innovation picks up candy from a basket.

2. Ajiah Parker, a first-year social work major from Earle, Arkansas, sprinkles peanuts on her candy apple at the candy apple competition held at Living Learning Community Courtyard.

3. Rachel Nguyen, a supply chain management major and An Nguyen, a nursing major, both first-years from Vietnam, paint masks at the Halloween costume contest held at Humanities and Social Sciences building.

4. Members of the International Student Association and Vietnamese Student Association pose for a photo, some dressed in costumes.

5. Students pose for a photo while they participate in mask painting competition at the Halloween costume contest held on Thursday, October 29.

6. A-State band members pose for a group photo during their weekly practice, dressed in costumes for Halloween.

7. Guests enjoy the participatory exhibition during the Art Bash Event.

7. The Howl statue at the Red Wolf Center decorated for Halloween.

9. Windgate Hall of Art and Innovation gallery decorated for the Art Bash event.

All photos by Sooyeong Choi | Photo editor